MOST REV. EDWARD F. HOBAN S.T.D., Ph.D., LL.D.

As any organization depends upon its leaders for inspiration and guidance, so a diocese depends upon its spiritual leaders. The Diocese of Cleveland has been blessed with three outstanding Catholic prelates in positions of leadership.

The planning and foresight of Cleveland's bishops is evident in the steady increase in the number of parishes and the growth in the Diocesan Board of Education.

John Carroll is proud of its intimate association with the Diocese of Cleveland and happy to serve in the education of its youth.

The 1957 Carillon pays tribute to the Most Rev. Edward F. Hoban, Archbishop—Bishop of Cleveland, and to the Auxiliary Bishops, the Most Rev. Floyd L. Begin and the Most Rev. John J. Krol. To them we extend our greetings and our gratitude.

president's message

Through the years to come you will treasure your 1957 Carillon. It will be your mine of memories about the classmates and teachers, the incidents and events, the laughs and labors that were part of your educational experience at John Carroll. It will also I trust, help you to keep in mind what you have learned here.

Your liberal education means that you have increased your skill in using the tools of learning; you know how to learn now and in the future. You have attained a basic understanding of the main issues in the important fields of knowledge. You have been brought face to face with a moral ideal of complete living. You have been challenged to make your knowledge issue into good actions, which characterizes the good man, in your own personal and social situation. You know that it is your personal responsibility to meet a standard of excellence in all that you do in the year ahead.

The 1957 Carillon will remind you of your John Caroll education, and it will, I know, reassure you that our prayers for your success in total losing are always with you.

HILOSOPHY is the strong and effective instrument of formulating a logical, unified intellect in harmony with the Divinely-instituted natural law. Philosophy is the handmaid of religion—and the true education of the rational powers of man must be permeated with the principles of spiritual orientation to Christ if it is to produce men of sound moral character who will be good leaders and valued citizens both in the temporal world and the Eternal Kingdom.

The 1957 Carillon honors two members of the Society of Jesus, one a philosopher, the Rev. Leonard H. Otting, S.J.; the other, a spiritual director, the Rev. Clifford J. LeMay, S.J. Between them they have devoted half a century to the achievement of this ideal in Carroll graduates.

Father Otting served John Carroll first in 1926-27 as Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. In 1933 he returned to the University as a Professor of Philosophy, a position which he has held continuously since then. Universally esteemed by his former students, Father Otting, by his dynamic, vibrant, lucid exposition of the principles of Rational Psychology, The Family, and Ethics, has fortified and invigorated Carroll graduates in those areas of living which are uniquely appropriate for the practice of Christian virtue in the secular modern world.

Student Counselor, Professor of Religion, dispenser of the redeeming grace of Penance and the Spiritual Life of the Eucharist, Father LeMay is the spiritual father of the student body. Since 1933 he, too, has shared the awesome responsibility and arduous labor of developing men of "acute and rounded intellect, of upright and manly conscience." Delving into students' difficulties with amazing insight, he has unburdened many of their troubles with sympathy and understanding, while deftly guiding them aright with the practical wisdom of the Christian scholar.

To Fathers Otting and LeMay, enduring and assuring symbols of Jesuit education to the several thousands of Carroll men who have been privileged to be guided by them, for their selfless service, their scholarly exhortations, and their exemplary emulation of the Way of the Master we dedicate this 1957 Carillon.

During the past year the University suffered the loss of three of its most revered and beloved faculty.

University President, the Very Rev. Frederick E. Welfle, S.J., died on August 17, 1956. Only a short time before, he had provided providentially for the immediate future by amplifying the University's administrative structure as a climax to the unprecedented growth and expansion of John Carroll during his 10 years as President.

Associate Professor of History Mr. Edward Eggl died on December 12, 1956. An outstanding teacher and eminent scholar, he was admired and esteemed by his students and his colleagues. A close personal friend of Fr. Welfle, Mr. Eggl was instrumental in founding the Lay Faculty Association and served as its first president.

Fritz W. Graff, dean emeritus of the School of Business, Economics, and Government died April 21, 1957. Dr. Graff joined the Carroll faculty in 1934 as a Professor of Business Administration and director of the embryo department. In 1945 he organized the School of Business, Economics, and Government. Serving as its dean for 12 years he was responsible for its growth in both size and stature.

alpha sigma nu

Standing in front of John Carroll University are Alpha Sigma Nu men: David Zenk, Raymond Rezac, George Biltz, John Rae, William Schmidt, and George Mihelic.

Alpha Sigma Nu, national Jesuit honorary fraternity, each year recognizes a select group of students who have distinguished themselves in scholarship, loyalty, and service to John Carroll University.

ASN has the responsibility of presenting an annual series of convocation lectures, featuring prominent speakers well versed in world affairs and community problems.

Among the 1956-57 series speakers were nuclear scientist Dr. Ralph Lapp, who spoke on "The World of Tomorrow"; Mr. Benjamin Brown, Director of the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, who considered "The Middle East Problem"; and the Honorable Albert Woldman, juvenile court judge, who discussed "Juvenile Delinquency."

William Schmidt was ASN president, with David Zenk as secretary. The Rev. Joseph O. Schell, S.J., is moderator.

Twenty-three members of the senior class were nominated to membership in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." Recommended for the honor by campus organizations, the following men were selected by the Carroll Union on the basis of scholastic achievement, service, and loyalty to the University:

Beginning with the Activities Congress during Orientation Week and the "Welcome to Freshmen Dance" on September 21, Union members sponsored or supported all University functions during the year.

The Jazz Concert, Community Chest Drive, Stunt Nite, and the Senior Prom were held under Union auspices. Other important projects included the sponsorship of ten movies, a special Mass and collection for Hungarian Relief, and the Carroll Union Convocation, at which the Very Rev. Hugh E. Dunn, University President, was introduced to the student body.

During the first Leadership Conference, student leaders gathered together on Sunday, October 7, 1956, to discuss solutions to such problems as parking, the school calendar, and activity fees. Seventeen union members were chosen to act as chaperones to 400 newsboys from The Cleveland News on a trip to Washington, D.C., and to 300 newsboys from The Cleveland Plain Dealer on a tour of New York City.

Richard Murphy presided over the Carroll Union, assisted by vice president John Scanlan, secretary James Seeberg, and treasurer William Norkett. The Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J., was moderator.

As host of the 13th National Congress of the National Federation of Catholic College Students, John Carroll University welcomed students from the entire nation in September. The convention was under the general direction of JCU senior Joseph Sedlock.

NFCCS represents the students of more than 150 Catholic colleges and universities in the nation. Its purpose is the promotion of Catholic interests in execution.

Senior delegate of NFCCS for the 1956-7 school year was David Ball, with Bartholomew Merella assisting him as campus co-ordinator. The William J. Murphy, S.J., is mode ator.

John Carroll University holds a charter membership in the National Student Association, a nation-wide organization of 250 colleges and universities, which was inaugurated in 1947 to promote the welfare of student. The organization shares information on problems common to college students through the medium of conventions, brochures, and public relations activities.

One of the Carroll Chapter's projects was a visit by Miss Carrie Smeltzer, Assistant to the Travel Director of NSA, who appeared on campus March 12 to promote NSA's travel service for students desiring to visit foreign countries at reduced rates.

booster club

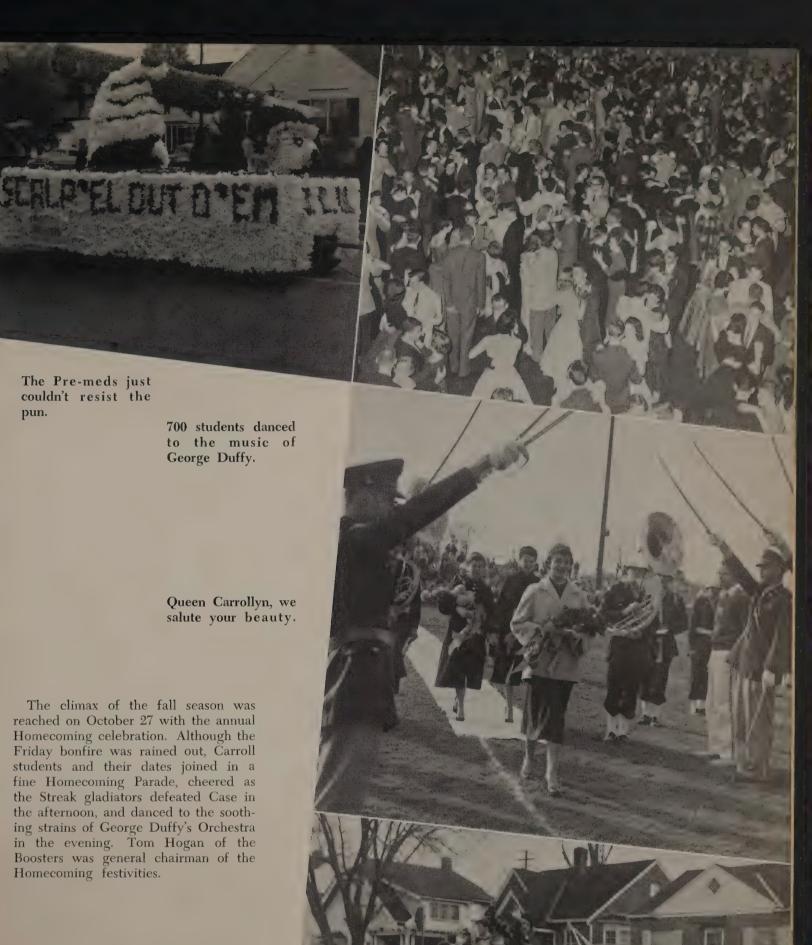

Christening the 1956-57 school year with an improved Freshman Orientation Week, The Boosters plunged into the task of supporting the football and basketball teams through rallies, car caravans, and half-time shows. The football season was highlighted by the Homecoming Weekend, during which the Boosters introduced the first Homecoming Parade.

Besides backing the athletic program, the group performed its duties of producing signs, posters, and publicity campaigns for campus organizations, events, and activities.

The Boosters also sponsored mixer-dances and the student Christmas party, supervised dance decorating and float building, entered floats for the Mardi Gras Dance and the St. Patrick's Day parade, conducted University tours for visitors and guests, and constructed exhibits and displays for Open House.

First semester officers were: John Scanlan, president; Chuck Novak, vice president; Tom Hogan, secretary; Jerry Dorsch, treasurer. Second semester officers were: Bob Martin, president; Dave Ross, vice president; Jerry Grant, secretary; Tom Code, treasurer.

Sparked by the rippling baton of its director, Mr. Jack T. Hearns, the John Carroll Band fulfilled its dual role as University Band and University Orchestra.

In addition to playing at all home football and basketball games, the musical marching unit traveled to Findlay and Clarion during the football season. The band also embarked on its first concert tour, appearing at Erie and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The musicians gave a formal concert in March, presented a pop concert in May, and performed for such on-campus observances as Parents of Freshmen Day, the High School Band Festival, and Open House.

The largest yearbook in Carroll history in the number of pages devoted to students is the boast of the 1957 Carillon. With the increase in size to 192 pages, the faculty section was given a new treatment, the senior section was expanded to feature larger senior portraits, the activities section enlarged to include new organizations, and the sports section increased in the coverage of varsity football, spring sports, and intramurals.

A new feature of this annual is the senior activities directory in the back of the book which allowed for a more streamlined and journalistically more admirable senior section.

An entire year was spent by the staff in an effort to produce the best Carillon ever. Dr. Richard J. Spath is faculty advisor.

pi delta epsilon

John Carroll's chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary fraternity in the field of journalism, assisted and co-ordinated the programs of the three student publications, the Carroll News, the Carillon and the Carroll Quarterly.

To stimulate interest in writing as a career, the fraternity sponsored the annual Diocesan Scholastic Press Association convention for high school journalists.

Pi Delta Epsilon concluded its busy year by sponsoring the annual publications banquet, promoting tours to publishing plants, and constructing the publications exhibit for Open House.

Chapter officers were: Jerome Dorsch, president; Christopher Orlie, vice president; and Charles Novak, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Richard J. Spath was moderator.

carroll quarterly

The Carroll Quarterly marked its tenth year as a student publication on the Carroll campus. To celebrate its anniversary, the Quarterly sponsored a Christmas Story Contest for the Winter issue, and compiled an anthology issue composed of the best articles published in the past decade.

The Carroll Debaters, receiving two ophies for their two main debate tournaents, once again had a successful debater season.

The varsity debate team placed first in the Otterbein College Invitational Speech Tournament. They also won the Sweepstakes Trophy at the Ohio State University Invitational Speech Tournament. In addition to these accomplishments, the society also participated in a number of smaller assemblies and debate discussions.

Officers for the current year were Sherman Berne, president, Paul Raymond, vice president, John Robertson, secretary, and Daniel Carney, treasurer. Mr. Vincent S. Klein is moderator of the society.

A sodalist is Christ's soldier working under the banner of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Using the Carroll campus as their battleground, members of the Sodality of the Annunciation worked continually during the past year on projects ranging from the religious to the social.

Through the Lenten Mass Club, the Student Leadership Retreat, and the monthly Days of Recollection, the Sodalists' spiritual activities were made accessible to the student body.

Other projects included distribution of Christmas baskets to needy families, the Christmas card sale, a mission collection, and the sale of religious articles at retreats.

The Sodality year was climaxed by the Anthesterion Dance on May 11.

Sodality officers were: George Biltz, prefect; Dick Christie, vice prefect; Anton Bouhassin, secretary; and Stan Glod, treasurer. Rev. Joseph O. Schell, S.J., is Director of Sodalities, and the Rev. Frank A. Bittenz, S.J., was advisor to the group.

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, JCU's active Catholic Action team, which has served as a model for similar groups throughout the United States, received national recognition at the 10th National CCD Congress in Buffalo, New York. The Carroll delegates addressed the assembly, set up an exhibit to display the John Carroll chapter's teaching methods, and participated in training courses at the convention.

Throughout the year, confraternity members spent long hours after classes and on weekends, bringing the teachings of the Catholic Church to inmates and patients of the Detention Home, Hudson Boys' Farm, the Warrensville Workhouse, and Highland View Hospital.

Alvin DeMeo was CCD president. The other officers were Thomas Norton, vice president; David Winch, secretary; and John Logue, treasurer. The Rev. George A. Kmieck, S.J., was CCD moderator.

glee club

Under the direction of Mr. Jack T. Hearns, the John Carroll University Glee Club participated in a full schedule of concerts, tours, and guest appearances.

The outstanding Glee Club innovation occurred during the Thanksgiving vacation when the songsters embarked on a road tour to Eastern schools. The club visited Notre Dame High School in Batavia, New York; Manhattanville College in White Plains, New York; Marymount College in Tarrytown, New York; St. Elizabeth College in New Jersey; and Trinity College in Washington, D.C.

In the Greater Cleveland area, the Carroll Glee Club sang in a joint concert with St. John's College, appeared on television station KYW, and entertained at several civic functions.

The group's on-campus performances included the Booster Christmas Party in December; the Band and Glee Club formal concert in March; the special convocation in April honoring Robert Briscoe, Lord Mayor of Dublin, Ireland; and Open House in May.

french club

During the past year, Les Dialogues, the French Club, presented a full program of lectures, films dealing with French subjects, and guest speakers. Included in the club's social calendar were a hayride, a party, and other recreational activities.

The organization's chief extra-curricular contribution to the University was sponsorship of the Mardi Gras Ball in cooperation with the Spanish Club.

The French Club was led by president Martin Dempsey. He was assisted by Gary Furin, vice president; John Duffy, secretary; Matthew Mahon, treasurer. Mr. Lucien A. Aube is moderator of Les Dialogues.

polishamerican club

The modern language organizations welcomed a new addition to their ranks this year with the inauguration of the Casimir Pulaski Club. The new group's first activity was the donation of a picture of Our Lady of Czestochowa to the John Carroll Chapel.

The club's business meetings centered around talks by members on such famous Polish heroes as Taduez Kosciusko and Casimir Pulaski, historical films, and informal discussions. The Polish Americans also constructed a permanent bulletin board in the Library displaying Poland's cultural and historical background.

John Szuch was the club's first president. He was aided by vice president Ronald Yersky, secretary Thomas Mszanowski, and treasurer Jerald Rachfal. Dr. Edmund S. Urbanski was moderator.

The sociable senors of the Spanish Club spiced their usual successful school year with a program of lectures, movies, and mixers. In addition, the group held its traditional Christmas dinner and dance in mid-December.

The highlight of the year for Ruben Dario was the Mardi Gras Ball, which was sponsored jointly with the French Club.

Mr. Luis Soto-Ruiz is the moderator of the organization. The officers were William Kysela, president; Daniel Stringer, vice president; William Gschwend, secretary; and John Chuchman, treasurer.

Seniors serenade I. M. Bewildered.

Trouble's brewing in BEG.
Juniors parody ROTC.

"Dizzyland", the senior presentation written by Kevin Sroub, Chuck Novak, and John Browne, captured the applause of the judges as well as of the audience and won the University Stunt Night trophy.

Tied for second place were the sophomore and junior productions "Freddie Goes to College" and "Hail to the Chief", the latter a parody on Fr. Dunn's appointment to JCU.

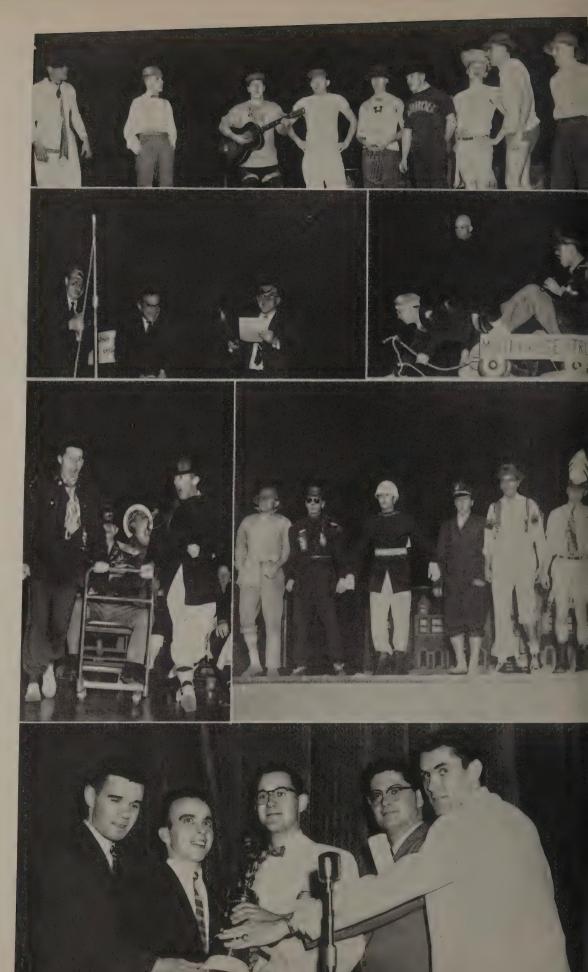

The freshmen presented an unusually good script for first year men entitled "The Case of the Missing Seal".

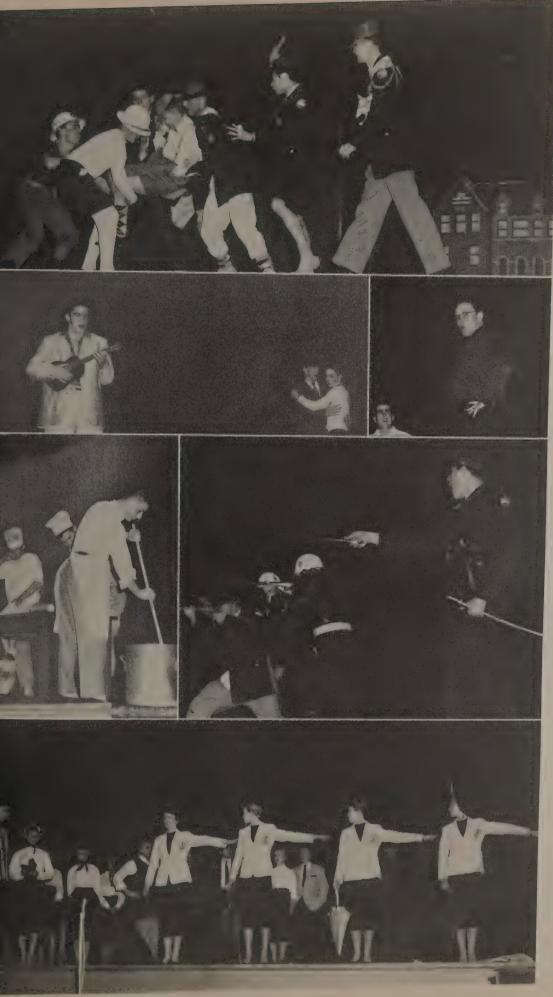

The Evening Division produced "Till Death Do Us Part", a satire on a Carroll student who arrives at the Pearly Gates after 12 years in college.

Chairman of the event was Lester Lyons. Master of Ceremonies Jack Riley added much to the evening's entertainment.

The Senior "galaxy of stars" held the audience spellbound.

Master of Ceremonies Jack Riley and Chairman Les Lyons present the trophy for the outstanding skit to senior script writers Chuck Novak, John Browne, and Kevin Sroub.

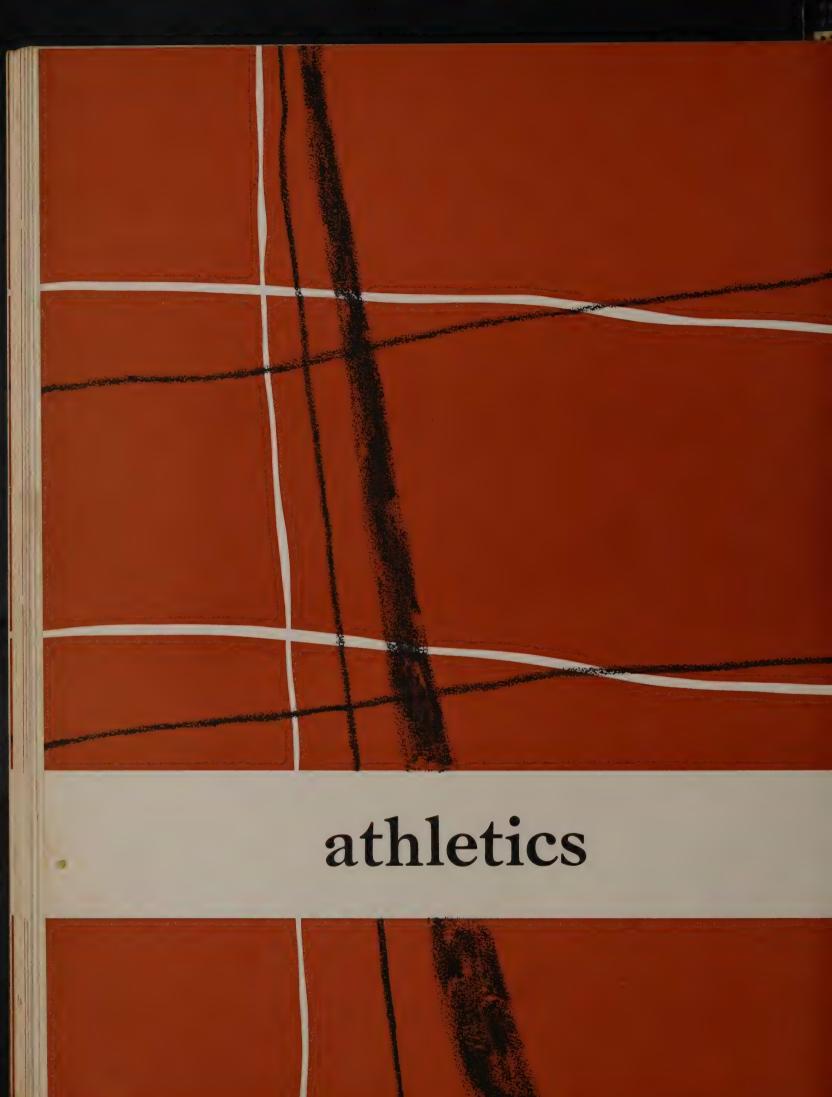

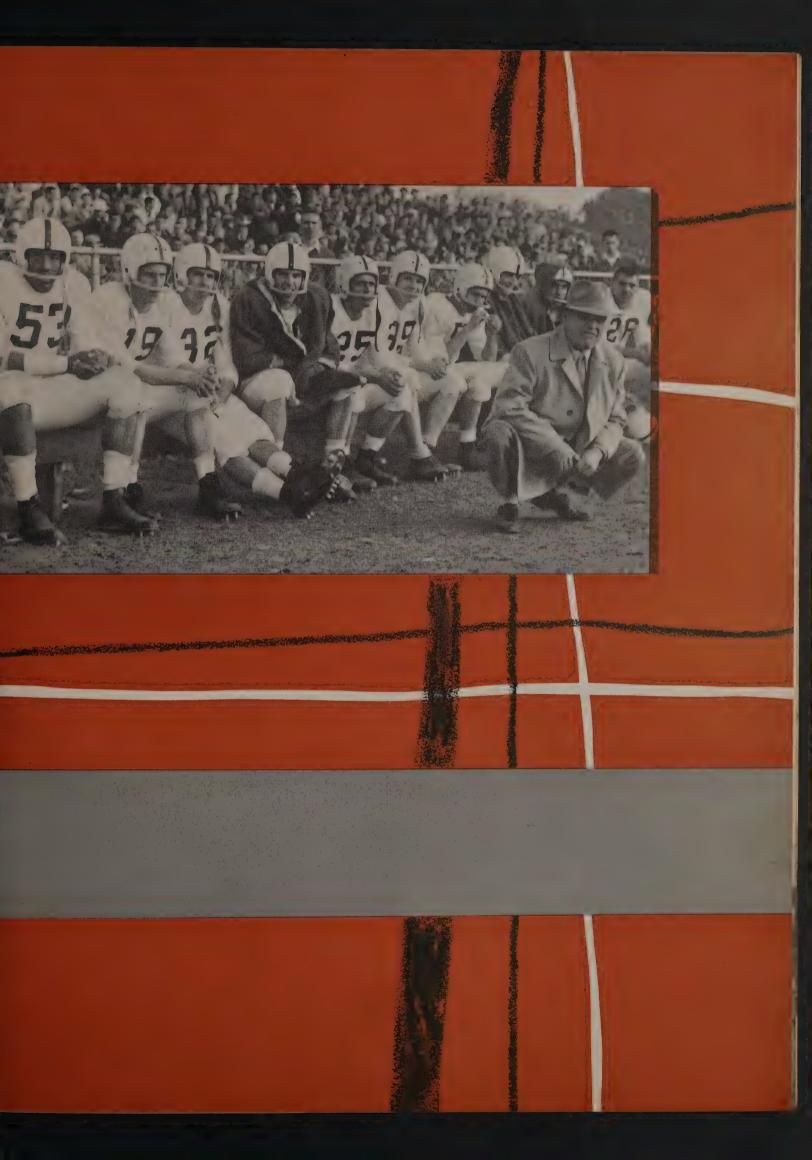

I. M. Bewildered is "carried away" with excitement.

"Elvis" serenaded Freddy and his father, while Bud McGivern eyed Father Hecht carefully during the Sophomore skit.

The Freshmen satirized both the Cafeteria and the Military Science Department.

The Evening Division's crack drill team even won applause from the Pershing Rifles.

Joe Smaltz, Halfback

Halfback Jack Fialko seems to have eluded successfully a Clarion defense-man to snare a Sam Frontino pass.

geneva

A leaky pass defense cost JCU a victory in the season opener against Geneva. Commenting on the game, Coach Herb Eisele said, "The team performed very creditably. Their failure in a few spots was due mainly to inexperience." Newcomers Bob Nix and Frank Walton were particularly impressive in the 7-7 deadlock.

clarion

The hard running of Joe Smaltz, Jim Gasper, and Jack Fialko accounted for the three touchdowns in the 18-6 victory over Clarion. Outstanding on the line were Don Grace, Jack Hyland, and Leon Matthews.

edinboro

Another sparkling performance by Joe Smaltz gave the Streaks their second consecutive win. Accounting for 149 yards Smaltz scored on runs of 57, 44, and 17 yards. Jack Fialko took a pass from Sam Frontino for the fourth tally.

case

Leland Hall's 74-yard scamper with a pass from Sam Frontino thrilled the Homecoming crowd as Carroll overwhelmed the Rough Riders 20-0. Joe Smaltz and Jack Fialko also hit paydirt.

wru

The Streaks ran roughshod over the hapless Redcats, 44-14. Alert and aggressive the Streaks turned in their best performance of the season. Outstanding on offense were Frontino, Gasper, Fialko, and Smaltz. Leading the defense were Nix, Porter, Hoffart, and Singel.

findlay

The Findlay Oilers soiled Carroll's clean slate, whipping them at Findlay, 20-7. The Oilers' offense was led by Little All-Americans Dale Gillespie, fullback, and Bill Tahorn, guard.

wayne

A touchdown in the closing minutes of the game cost Carroll both the game and the PAC title as Wayne came from behind to tie the Streaks 14-14. Playing their last game for JCU were Don Grace, Frank Singel, Joe Smaltz, Tom Hoffart, Sam Frontino, and Jim Gasper.

The opening game of the season against Geneva was a wild one as evidenced by this photo.

The 1956 Freshman football team copped the Presidents' Athletic Conference title, remaining undefeated for the second straight year.

The Frosh opened against Case, overpowering the Rough Riders, 19-0. Quarterback Jerry Schweickert scored the first TD for the season, bibliotist ting a 50-yard drive with a sneak from the two-yard line. Marcel Genereaux, speedster at the halfback position, tallied next on a 30-yard punt. Schweickert converted. Halfback John Greene dove to paydirt from the two to make the final score, 19-0.

The next victim was Wayne University of Detroit, 32-14. The yearlings drew the first blood on a three-yard plunge by Greene. The next score come on a 10-yard sweep by fullback Sam Gallett. The plebs scored one touchdown on a Schwerckert to Genereaux pass, another on a Schwerckert to Tom O'Malley pass, and another on a 70-yard sweep by Schweickert.

To pose the season the Streaklets downed strong Western Reserve, 6-0. Greene scored from fur yards out, after Schweickert raced 55 yards to set up the tally.

The line, defensive and offensive, played superbly throughout the season. Clem Tully, Dar Kendzerski, Pete Gaizutis, Jim Gauntner, Bill Motejla, and Bob Kilbourne opened the holes and closed them, broke the backs loose and caught them, and made the difference between champe and non-champs.

kent state

A brand new edition of the Blue Streaks, displaying more fight than finesse, had to finish fast to topple Kent State, 97-90, at Shaw Gym. Six of Kent's players were eliminated by way of the foul route, while the Streaks managed to lose none. Captain Frank Humenik led the scoring with 25 and was followed by John Stavole with 19, Dick Krebs with 18, and Tom Tupa with 15.

steubenville

After battling Steubenville College on even terms for half the game, Carroll, outjumped and outscored, bowed to the Barons, 105-92, on the winner's court. All five starters hit in double figures, with Humenik's 20 the highest. Krebs and Stavole each had 17, while Furin and Tupa each collected 14.

western reserve

The Blue Streaks, making their first league start, bombed Reserve, 102-79, to help Coach Sil Cornachione celebrate his 29th birthday. Stavole was top man with 24. Humenik's 19, Tupa's 15, and Krebs' 10 followed.

youngstown

Carroll's inability to hit from the outside and their failure to cope with Youngstown's shifting zone defense, resulted in the Blue Streaks' second defeat, 84-73, at Youngstown. High-scoring Stavole garnered 26 points, while Krebs and Jim Kenealy netted 12 and 10 respectively.

case

The Blue Streaks beat Case Tech, 91-64, at Shaw Gym for their second league victory and third without defeat on the home court. Four of the five starters had double figures: Humenik 22, Krebs 20, Stavole 16, and Kenealy 11.

Before Carroll visited Pennsylvania their 95.5 average per game ranked them second nationally among small colleges, but Slippery Rock rose sky-high to keep our "away" record clean—of victories. The hot Rockets singed the nets for 45% and upset the Streaks, 80-78. Four starters rang the bell for 10 or more. These were: Stavole 18, Krebs 16, Humenik 12, and Furin 10.

wayne state

A desperation heave by sophomore Krebs from 25 feet out provided the winning margin in overtime as the Streaks ended a Wayne victory skein of 22 games, 82-80. Krebs was also high man of the evening with 24 and was followed closely by Stavole with 22. Humenik scored 11.

fenn

The Carroll cagers had a healthy scare thrown into them by a fired-up Fenn five before they finally triumphed, 70-65. Junior Stavole collected 26 points while making good on 14 free throws. Humenik had 14 and sub Kenealy flipped in 12.

defiance

Beaten only once in 13 games this season and just twice in their last 35 games, Defiance received quite a scare from a still-green Carroll team. For the second time this season the Streaks went into overtime, but this time they came out on the short end, 90-88. Stavole's 29 were high for the Streaks. Humenik got 17, Krebs 16, and Furin 13.

gannon

Carroll ended its road jinx with a 102-74 pasting of Gannon College at Erie. It was the Streaks' first victory in five treks into enemy territory this season. Krebs, the brilliant sophomore guard, scorched the nets to record the season's high with 30. Humenik was close behind with 25, while Furin had 13, Leland Hall had 12, and Stavole had 10.

Bill Coyne

Ted Arvanitis

Gary Furin and John Stavole fight for a loose ball in the Reserve game as Tom Tupa and Dick Krebs close in.

findlay

The 97-82 score of the Findlay game fails to tell the story of the tightness of the contest. It was only sheer aggressiveness and a firm desire to win that pulled the Streaks out as victors. Humenik tallied 24, Krebs 21, Stavole 19, and Hall 14.

st. francis

Piling up a big first half margin, the Carroll men withstood a St. Francis rally after the intermission to defeat the Frankies, 77-69, at Shaw. Playing his best game of the season, Furin flipped in 25 points. Stavole had 19, Krebs 18, and Humenik 15.

kent state

Humenik hit for 26 points and three other starters scored in double figures to give the Blue Streaks an 89-72 decision over Kent State. Stavole and Krebs each meshed 18, while Furin collected 11.

case

Registering its fifth straight victory and keeping its PAC slate clean in the process, JCU romped to a 93-63 victory over Case. Krebs was high man with 23 and was followed by Stavole with 20, and Furin with 15.

st. vincent

By the slim margin of two free throws made with only four seconds remaining, JCU saw its string of victories end at five at the hands of St. Vincent, 75-73. Four Streaks scored in double figures including Stavole 19, Humenik 14, Krebs 14, and Tupa 12.

Despite the efforts of three Reserve defenders, Frank Humenik goes up for what looks like two points. John Stavole waits nearby just in case.

Bob Straub

John Stavole

western reserve

In their lowest scoring game of the year, the Blue Streaks were upset by the highly-underrated Red Cats, 65-63. It was the fourth loss by the slim margin of two points. Krebs with 21 and Stavole with 19 were the only Carroll men to reach double figures in the game.

wayne state

Despite Humenik's 30 points, the Streaks could not keep up with Wayne's slick cagers and were defeated, 83-69. Krebs scored 14 and Stavole netted 13 in the title test.

loyola

Defeating Carroll and breaking their own high scoring mark, Loyola enjoyed a 106-80 feast to end their season. Sophomore standout Krebs hit on 14 field goals and one foul shot to net 29 points. Consistent Stavole scored 18 and Tupa scored 12.

baldwin-wallace

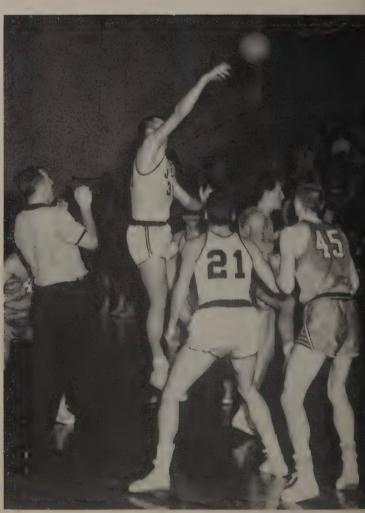

Playing a benefit game for the Dick Kadis fund, the Streaks dropped one of the greatest district games of the season to B-W, 101-95. Stavole broke two foul shooting records as he sunk 17 of 25 attempts. The junior star netted a total 31 points. Krebs had 19, Humenik 16, and Hall 12. For Humenik, Tupa, and Ted Arvantis this game marked the end of their college careers.

freshman basketball

Led by forward Jim Keim and center Chuck Cybulski, the freshman cagery ended their season with a victory and a 53 overall record. They nailed the runnerup spot in the PAC.

The Frosh opened the season against Western Reserve. They nipped the Red Cats, 71-70. Jim Thailing was high with 16 points, Cybulski had 15, and Jack Kingston and John Slosar had 10 apiece.

Case Tech sneaked by the plebes, 64-61, in the next encounter. The yearlings rallied against Wayne, as they downed the Tartars, 58-50, in the first meeting of the season between the two teams.

Cybulski led the Streaklets against the Golden Flashes of Kent, as Carroll downed their opponent, 70-69. The center was high point man with 17 points. Kent retaliated by downing the Blue Streak freshmen 73-62 at Kent.

The loss to the Rough Riders was avenged as the Streaklets annihilated Case, 63-43. The Frosh lost their championship chances against the Red Cats, 73-67. The loss, however, did not dim the yearling spirit, as the plebes finished in style against Wayne with a 73-59 victory.

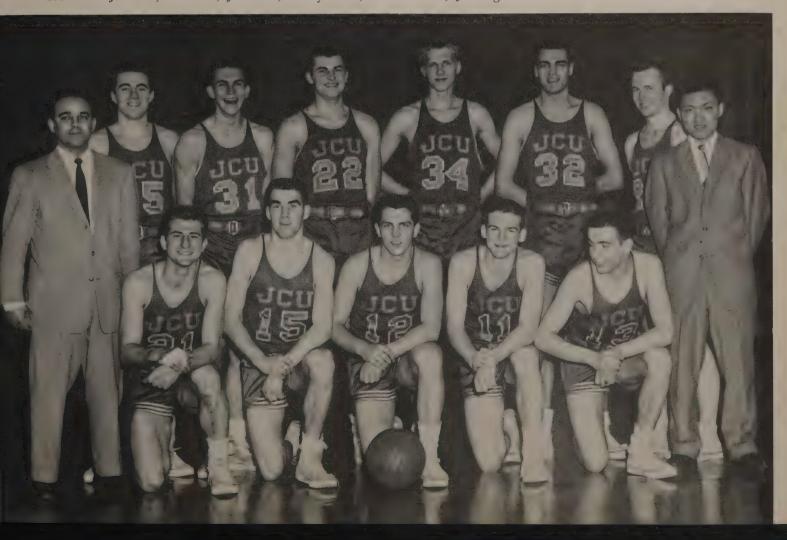

It was never a runaway season for the Frosh, as they averaged 65.6 points a game to their opponents' 62.6. The Streaklets scored 525 points to their opposition's 501.

Keim was named as the most valuable player. He also took scoring honors with 124 points and a 15.5 average.

Cybulski was the leading rebounder. He also scored 106 points and had a 13.2 point average.

Thailing had a 10 point average and an 80 point total. Slosar scored 64 points with an eight point average. Bob Kaump averaged 7.8 tallies scoring 61 points.

tennis

Hampered by late snows and an even later spring the 1957 Tennis Team spent many weary and frustrating hours practicing in the Gym.

Coach Dick Iliano predicted a successful season with four returning lettermen, Chuck Guthrie, Chuck Mooney, DiGiovanni, and Bob Goold, ready for stiff competition. A promising group of newcomers included John Valenti, Wilson, and Pete O'Hara.

Team co-captains were Guthrie and Mooney who had identical 1956 records of 9 wins and 2 losses in singles competition Both also took second in the 1956 PAC tourney.

Six returning lettermen provided the nucleus for the 1957 galf team under the direction of Coach Carl Torch. The team was faced with the challenge of emulating the outstanding squads of the last three years which have compiled the impressive record of 26 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie.

Carroll golf teams have captured three consecutive City Championships. They have placed 10th, 4th, and 3rd in three years participation in the Ohio Intercollegiate tournament, and they won the first PAC title last year.

Cap ain of the 1957 team was Pat Keenan who led the squad in 1956 with a 74 average. Other veterans with their 1956 averages were: Nick Hoban, 78; Pete Behm and Dick Toth, 79; Lee Kenning and Gene Kowalski, 80.

Bolstering the first line men were sophomores Ed Roy, Ken Kamp an, George Koneval, and Ed Reno.
